

Numbers

3	½ is (half of 7), a definitely limited period of time
4	indicates the created world
6	means imperfection (i.e. wanting to be like 7 -- God's number -- but not able to)
666	is an intensification of 6 equaling the worst evil there can be
7	means the works God alone can do and either does or has done
10	stands for all of
1,000	means really, absolutely all of ....
12	is used for the people of God -- 12 tribes in Old Testament, 12 apostles in New Testament
144,000	is a combination of 12s (12 x 12) and 10s (10 x 10 x 10) meaning really, absolutely, totally, all of God's people in both Old and New Testament times
addition	of two numbers tells you to combine the interpretation of each number squaring or cubing	a number intensifies its meaning (if 10 means all of then 1000 means really, absolutely all of )
